WellSpring International Educational Foundation is a non-profit educational foundation registered with Revenue Canada as a tax exempt charitable foundation.

WellSpring International Educational Foundation develops educational materials based on the Sacred Writings of the world's Religions. It is not concerned with the practices of any single Religion or affiliated with any particular Religion. Its focus is on making the spiritual principles of all Religions accessible and relevant to the problems and conditions that face us in the world today. Its materials are provided at cost in the public interest and by license through non-profit organizations and Religious Institutions. Development and distribution of its materials is made possible by those who voluntarily wish to support this work.

This is copyrighted material. All rights are reserved except that non-profit organizations and Religious Institutions may, upon written request, reprint and distribute this material within their communities.

SPECIAL NOTICE:

In order to make the Feast Packets as affordable as possible to the Bahá'í Community, SPECIAL PERMISSION is given by WellSpring International to duplicate as many copies as needed for use within your community only. Each Local Spiritual Assembly or Bahá'í Group need order only one Set. Under Copyright Law, special permission is needed to photocopy any copyrighted materials. This notice constitutes such permission. Permission applies to this WellSpring product only.

INSTRUCTIONS:

If your Community decides to use the Feast Activity Packets for children's classes during the consultation or any portion of Feast, you can copy and compile them in two ways:

- 1) Photocopy onto 3-hole punched paper for use in a 3-ring binder (Most printing or copy shops do not charge extra for 3-hole punched paper).
- 2) Photocopy onto regular paper and staple the upper left corner of each Packet individually.

Teacher's Guides are included as part of the Packet for each Bahá'í Month. Because you will need fewer copies of Teacher's Guides than the children's material, they are compiled separately for ease of duplication.

Teachers will need some time to prepare for each Feast class. It is helpful to gather the suggested materials listed on the first page of each Teacher's Guide ahead of time. In addition, you may want to plan different activities for younger children who may find some of the activities in the Packets too advanced. You may find there is more material in an individual Packet than can be covered during one Feast. Please feel free to select some of the suggested activities. The children should feel free to complete them at home.
